CLASS DAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Large Audience Hears Exercises of the Class of 1919 in the Auditorium—Program One of Interest.

The class day exercises of the members of the graduating class of the high school took place Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the high school before a large audience. The class day program is one that is always looked forward to with much interest by the students as well as their friends. The exercises were held in the main auditorium and the platform was decorated with flowers and maple leaves.

Miss Leslie Wyatt played the march for the graduates to enter and all took their places on the platform and presented a fine appearance. The first number on the program was the president's address by Edwin Smith. Mr. Smith told of the four years the class had been associated with the high school and of the many events that had taken place during the four years. He spoke of the responsibility of the graduates and of how much the graduating class felt the responsibility that now rested upon them as they were about to leave the scenes of their earnest endeavor. He spoke a fitting word to the kind treatment received from the faculty and that they would always hold in tender remembrance their school days.

After a piano solo by Durrell Hatfield, given in a capable manner, Miss Wyatt read the class prophecy. She announced on the platform with a long scroll, which she produced, a scroll and from its pages a list of the doings of the class since the previous year. Miss Upp had evidently kept in close touch with the "doings" of the class of 1919 for there was nothing overlooked that lent an interest. The program was on by the class, especially those of a more public nature were received with loud applause and the delivery of the same was in a pleasing manner.

The next number was the Mantle Oration by Miss Pearl Beauchamp with a response by Miss Josephine Ross, of the class of 1911. Both appeared on the platform at the same time. Miss Beauchamp dressed in the cap and gown. After Miss Beauchamp had told of the strong points that had characterized the graduates of the cap and gown and how they now the mantle must fall upon the lower class. The oration was well given and the remarks found a ready response in Miss Ross, who received the cap and gown with all due ceremony. Miss Ross as representative of the junior class was somewhat reluctant to believe all the good things recorded of the going out class and briefly summed up the virtues of the class of 1911. Her response was especially clever and was heartily applauded.

Clyde Merrill was assigned the task of telling the "Class Prophecy." In his own style the speaker looked far ahead in the future and vividly told what had happened to each graduate after leaving the school. Some were farmers, actors, public speakers, housewives and there was scarcely an occupation overlooked in depicting what the fates had decreed to each student. The prophecy showed that Mr. Merrill had studied closely the habits and characteristics of each of his classmates.

The class song was next sung, the words being composed by Miss Ruth McLaughlin and the music by Durrell Hatfield, both of which were well done. The presentation of gifts to the members of the senior class was performed by Miss Ruth McLaughlin, assisted by Misses Lillian Rossiter and Lora Lewis. The gifts were numerous and Miss McLaughlin found appropriate words in presenting each token which the seniors seem to take good naturedly. Miss Coffey, who has been the class officer, was also presented with a gift, for which she thanked the members most sincerely.

At the close of the presentation, Principal R. O. Stepp referred to the fact of Miss Lillian Davis winning second honors for the high school in the state oratorical meet in Champaign, which brought forth hearty applause, and also gave further announcements of today's program at Nichols park.

The friends next assembled in front of the high school building, where Curtis Schofield gave the Ivy Oration, which was well done. At its close the delicate little Ivy was planned and the exercises of the class of 1919 of old J. H. S. were concluded.

DEATH RECORD

Markillie.

Martin Luther Markillie closed his eyes in death and went to the home prepared for him above at 5:30 o'clock Monday morning, at the family residence, 432 South East street. He had been suffering from a complication of ailments since Nov. 17 last and on Wednesday of last week was attacked with pneumonia in both lungs, which caused his death. Although a great sufferer he was patient through it all and though he expressed sorrow at leaving his dear ones he was prepared to go and was not afraid to die. Luther, as he was familiarly known to his friends, was a son of Abraham and Martha Markillie and was born on the farm of his parents in the vicinity of Lynville, in Morgan county, Oct. 28, 1857, and at the time of his death had arrived at the age of 52 years, 6 months and 26 days. He resided on the farm until the year 1879, when he went to Winchester to engage in the dry goods business. Ten years later he went to Boston, Mass., where he learned the profession of piano tuning and returned to Winchester, where he engaged in his newly acquired profession. After a few years he went to Springfield for a time and four years since came to this city, where he has since made his home and has been actively engaged in piano tuning. On Nov. 8, 1893, he was united in marriage to Miss Frances Estes of Winchester, and this union was blessed in the birth of two children, Frank E., and John, both of whom, together with their mother, survive to mourn the death of a loving husband and affectionate father. While yet a lad in his teens Mr. Markillie was converted and united with the Christian church in Lynville and when he came to this city to reside he became a member of the Central Christian church and has always taken an active part in church work and being an excellent performer upon several musical instruments he aided much to the efficiency of the Sunday school orchestra and was also a member of the Osborne-Drake orchestra. He was a prime favorite with all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance and his passing away will bring sorrow to a large circle of relatives and friends. He was well read and besides having a knowledge of current events he was well informed on happenings in the past, as he had kept a diary since he was 13 years of age.

Besides his wife and children he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ada Lankford, residing in Winchester, and one brother, David Markillie of Quincy. Funeral services of a brief nature will be held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at the family residence, 432 South East street, after which the remains will be taken overland to Winchester, where more extended services will be held on arrival in the Christian church, and will be conducted by Rev. Russell F. Thripp of this city, assisted by Rev. J. H. Coates of Winchester. Interment will be made in the Winchester cemetery.

The venerable William Wilson very suddenly and unexpectedly expired Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Potter, 1220 West Lafayette avenue, where the deceased had made his home for some years. Although quite feeble, Mr. Wilson was in his usual health and at the hour mentioned had just gone down stairs from his room where he had gone after breakfast to indulge in a smoke and was sitting in a chair when he was seen to slide onto the floor with his head resting in the chair from which he had slipped. He was picked up and laid on a lounge and breathed but a few times when his spirit took its flight. He had a tendency towards dropsy, a disease which proved fatal to his father many years since.

William Wilson was a son of Edward and Ann Wilson and was born on the farm of his parents near Lynville, Sept. 26, 1830, and at the time of his death had reached the ripe age of 79 years, 7 months and 28 days. He was never married and remained on the farm and had as housekeeper his sister, Mrs. Martha Fellows, who about ten years ago preceded her brother in death. Since that time he has made his home with the family of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Potter, the lady being a niece. Mr. and Mrs. Potter removed from Lynville to this city two years ago and the deceased had been a member of their household several years before they came to this city to reside.

Mr. Wilson is survived by his brother, Henry, who resides in Lakewood, N. M., and his niece, Mrs. Catherine Potter of this city, besides a number of nephews. He was preceded in death by his brother and sisters, Edward Wilson, Mrs. Maria Fellows, Mrs. Sarah Dodsworth, Mrs. Ann Fellows, Mrs. Elizabeth Coultas and Mary Wilson, who passed away in infancy.

Funeral services will be held at the home, 1220 West Lafayette avenue, at a time to be announced later.

Inquest Held.

Owing to the circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. Wilson, Coroner Piepenbring was notified and he empaneled a jury consisting of J. W. York, foreman; R. E. Higgins, clerk; Jefferys Clary, P. R.

Berry.
Mrs. Cornelia Berry died at the Old People's home on Grove street at 4:15 Monday morning after suffering for a number of years, during which all her pain and troubles were borne with Christian resignation. She was a member of the Christian church and a consistent follower of her Lord and Master, whose she was and whom she served. She was born in Erie county, New York, April 7, 1825, and came to the home in this city from Ottumwa, Iowa, May 21, 1907. Her nearest relatives are Mrs. Adeline Wilson and Mrs. J. A. Milsap, both of Dennison, Colo., and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell of Ottumwa, Iowa. She was a woman of lovely character and Christian disposition and she was ready to meet her Maker with Joy and not with grief.

No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

Samples.
Mrs. Lucy Samples died Monday night at 11:40 o'clock at her residence in Pisgah neighborhood. Mrs. Samples underwent an operation at Passavant hospital some time ago and had sufficiently recovered to return to her home a few days ago. She was the wife of E. T. Samples.

DIABETES

From the late figures the hope of recovery under the new emollient treatment seems to be about as follows:

In people of sixty and over the results are quite uniform, probably nine-tenths recovering. While at fifty, and over a large majority of all cases yield to the treatment, below fifty and approaching forty the disease gets more stubborn, and between thirty and forty the percentage is not high—probably not much over half yielding.

Under thirty the percentage is less and in children recoveries have been very few and most of those were obtained with the aid of skilled physicians forcing nutrition, with alkaline treatment to prevent formation of acetones.

The new emollient treatment is known as Fulton's Diabetic Compound. It can be had in

PUPILS' RECITAL

Students of the Illinois College Conservatory of Music Held in Pleasing Program Before a Large Audience Last Night—Miss Duncan acts as Accompanist.

Last evening at Academy hall a pupils' recital was given by members of the classes of Mr. Kritch, Mr. Munger and Madame Wegener, assisted by Mr. Kritch and Miss Duncan. This concert brought to a close the annual spring festival of Illinois College Conservatory, and was certainly a fitting companion to the first two concerts of last Thursday and Friday evenings. After hearing the surpassingly good work of the members of the faculty at the recital of Friday evening it was no surprise to find such excellent work on the part of the pupils of the Conservatory. In every department—violin, piano and voice, as well as composition, there was shown a finish and careful, painstaking training such as one seldom hears from others than professional musicians.

The program was one of unusual interest and variety, containing numbers from classic and modern composers, and, while somewhat longer than usual, held the attention of the audience to the end. There was much spontaneous applause, and the friends of the Conservatory were most enthusiastic in their congratulations after the recital, several expressing the opinion that there had never been a better pupils' recital at Academy hall.

One of the most artistic features of the evening was the accompanying of Miss Duncan, who certainly possesses the rare gift of inspiring the soloist with confidence, playing with sympathy and sureness, yet never making the accompaniment too prominent.

The school year is coming rapidly to a close, and the last of the pupils' recitals will be given this week and the first part of next. It is hoped that the high standard set by the new faculty this year will be maintained in 1910-11. Those who heard the three festival concerts of this year have full confidence in the future of Illinois College Conservatory as long as the present faculty remains.

The following was the program:

RAIN HALTS
GAME AT ELGINTEAMS REMAIN IDLE TUESDAY IN NORTHERN CITY.

Only One Game to Be Played in Watchmaker City and Then to Freeport—Muscatine and Kankakee in Fierce Eleven Inning Contest, the Former Winning—Notes of the Association.

WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY.

Jacksonville at Elgin.
Kankakee at Muscatine.
Decatur at Freeport.
Joliet at Clinton.

Elgin, May 23.—(Special.)—"No game to day between Jacksonville and Elgin on account of rain."

The above brief message told the story of Monday's doings in baseball circles in Elgin. According to the schedule only two games are to be played in the Watchmaker City and it is doubtful if the teams will agree to play a double header to day.

The following telegrams tell of the results elsewhere in the league Monday.

Muscatine, 4; Kankakee, 3.

Muscatine, May 23.—(Special.)—Muscatine batted out a victory in the eleventh to day in one of the fiercest scraps of the year. The score:

Muscatine 0 0 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 1—4 9 2
Batteries—Eyer and Reisinger;
McTigue, Scheetz, Williams and Boyle.

Freeport, 2; Decatur, 3.

Freeport, May 23.—(Special.)—Decatur won first game of series 3 to 2 in a featureless game. Landermilk and Merz were both wild and ineffective. Two errors at home plate by Kelly allowed first two runs for the visitors. The score:

Decatur 2 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—3 8 2
Freeport 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0—2 4 5
Batteries—Merz, Middleton and Hartley; Landermilk, Horn and Kelly.

Clinton, 1; Joliet, 2.

Clinton, Ia., May 23.—(Special.)—Joliet won a close game here today from the locals. The score:

Joliet 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 5 2
Batteries—Hogan and O'Connor; Robinson and Wood.

SUNDAY GAMES.

It took ten innings to determine the result of the third game between Jacksonville and Joliet and when the last man was out the visitors had the victory. It was a hard game to lose as Jacksonville tied the score three times, only to blow up in the fatal tenth. Balliet pitched seven innings but with the score tied Manager Rowland pulled out the southpaw and sent Bob O'Hearn to the mound. Bob got along nicely until the tenth when two singles and a hit batsman filled the bases. O'Hearn presented the next batter with a base on balls and the man on third was forced over the plate. The next batter singled, scoring two men, a sacrifice and triple brought in two more before the agony was over, and the visitors were five runs to the good as a result of their turn at bat. The sap was out of the crowd as well as the players and in the locals' half of the inning the men went out in one, two, three order.

Jacksonville scored her first run in the fourth, two more came in the sixth and one more was added in the seventh. Joliet scored in the second, made two more in the sixth, one in the seventh and five in the tenth. It was a game with plenty of hitting which was relished by the large crowd present. Joliet was credited with fourteen safe ones and the locals got a total of ten hits. Jasper and Van Dine were good for two hits each, both getting a two bagger. Kreitz hit the ball on the nose for a triple, which with Balliet's single tied the score. Foster had a bad day at first and both of his errors proved very costly. Dad McCarthy umpired the game and his work gave satisfaction. The score:

Joliet.

Kankakee, 3; Decatur, 1.

Rain stopped an exciting game Sunday at Decatur with Kankakee in the seventh inning, the score standing 2 to 1 in favor of the Kayes. The score:

R. H. E.

Decatur 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1 5 1

Freeport, 5-6; Clinton, 2-3.

Freeport took both games Sunday in a double header by timely hitting. Rogers succeeded Landermilk early in the first game and pitched his team to double victory. The score:

R. H. E.

Clinton 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 3 2
Freeport 1 0 1 0 0 1 0 2—5 8 1

Freeport 4 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—6 7 2
Batteries—Nugent, Walters and Schwab; Rogers and Kelly.

O'Neill, who umpired here in the past series, is not a resident of Joliet, but of Chicago. His home is in Pontiac where his family resides but he is employed in Chicago.

The Pisgah baseball team was victorious over the Sulphur Springs team Monday afternoon in a fast game, score 2 to 1. Batteries—Pisgah, Amos Cox and Thomas Flynn; S. Springs, Otto Wood and Alfred Davenport.

An effort is being made at Decatur to put their team in the hands of a company of five stockholders and it looks as though the name of Dr. Childs will be a quantity in baseball circles in Decatur.

CANADA LANDS

Western Canada is undergoing a development, the magnitude of which is no less than wonderful. The official figures for the month of March show that not only has the immigration increased from 18,464 in 1908 to 22,065 in 1909, but also that the arrivals from the United States exceeded those from all other countries. No less than 17,310 citizens of the United States settled in Canada last March.

Now is a chance of a lifetime to buy raw land at from $14 to $25 an acre which is as good and which will produce as much small grain as our $150 Illinois land.

Canada land will be the talk of investors for years yet to come and you will certainly regret the fact if you do not investigate it thoroughly. Ask your friends, write to acquaintances who are farming in Canada, or call at my office for further information.

FORTUNE TELLERS.

In 1835 Predict That Music Loving Ben Grierson Would Be a Brigadier General.

Although I was born in 1826 I do not remember the visit of Halley's comet in 1835; but I do remember when Gen. Grierson was a young man at home with his father and mother living in the old brick house, way out near the woods on East State street. His youngest sister, Miss Mary Grierson, and my sister, Miss Ella Wolcott were warm personal friends. The "set" of young people to which they belonged had many happy times together.

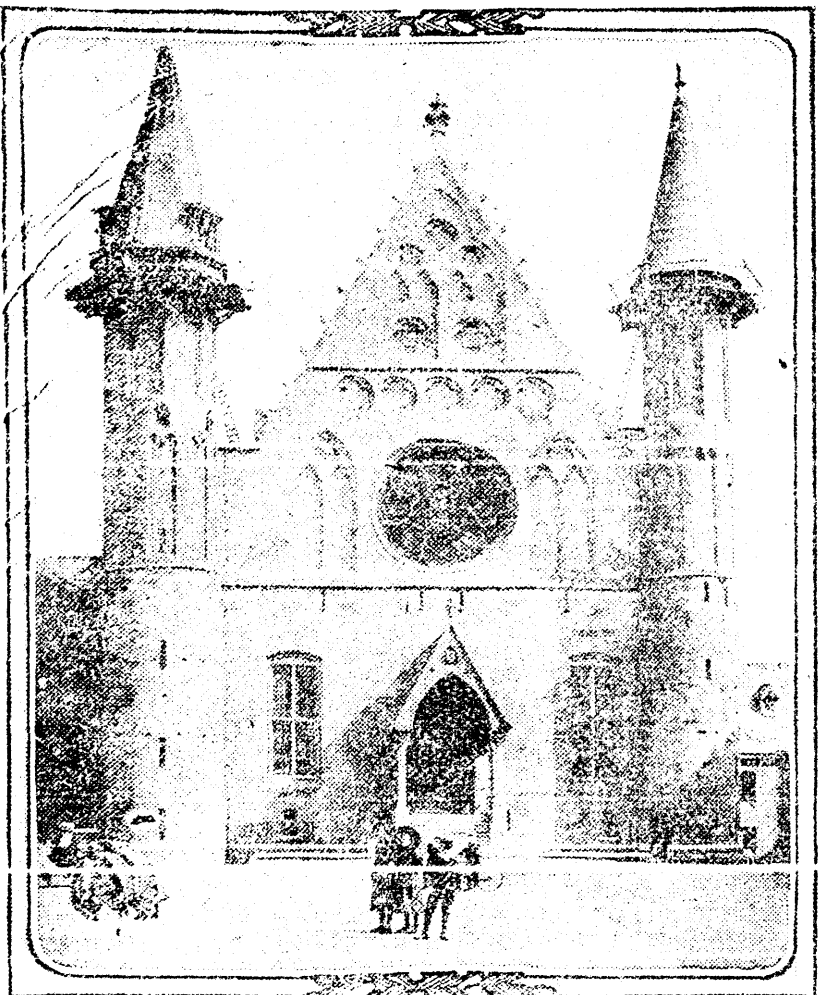

They were gathered one evening at the Grierson home, and to vary the fun they began trying their fortunes. It was done with fancy pieces of paper folded and strung together in a peculiar manner. When the lower end was turned down the person unfolding it learned what he, or she was to be in the future. When it was Ben Grierson's turn he learned that he was to be a brigadier general, and the crowd shouted with laughter. Ben Grierson, full of music, organizer of the first band Jacksonville ever had—Ben Grierson a brigadier general. It was too funny for anything and again they laughed merrily.

But the years went by bringing many changes. Miss Mary Grierson was called home to the Father's "house of many mansions" in her young womanhood. Miss Wolcott served as hospital nurse all through the civil war, and is now so helpless with rheumatism as to require the constant care of a nurse. Ben Grierson won his rank of brigadier general, and is now the only one of the merry crowd who still lives in Jacksonville.

Prominent among the men who will represent this country at the coming conference will be Senator Elburn Root, who, it is said, understands the entire case, and he, assisted by several legal advisers, will effect an understanding which will be agreeable to both countries concerned.

Fred L. Gibson, 143 Grand ave., Jacksonville, Ill., says: "About four years ago I had an attack of La Grippe and it weakened my kidneys. After that whenever I caught cold, I had a dull pain in the small of my back and I always felt tired. Being urged to try Dean's Kidney Pills, I did so and they soon cured me. Since then when I have felt the least return of my trouble, I have taken Dean's Kidney Pills and they have always relieved me. I hope other kidney sufferers will try this excellent medicine."

HONOR WOMAN'S MEMORY.

Hundredth Anniversary of Margaret Fuller Commemorated.

Boston, May 23.—The high regard in which the memory of Margaret Fuller is held in New England literary circles was given expression today by exercises commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the writer's birth. The literary and historical societies of Boston and other places appropriately observed the centennial.

Margaret Fuller was born at Cambridgeport, Mass., May 23, 1810. The story of her life and death is one of absorbing interest. On the death of her father in 1835 she supported her brothers and sisters by teaching in Boston and Providence. In 1841 she went to New York and became literary editor of the Tribune under Horace Greeley. In 1845 she went abroad and spent the winter in Rome, there she met the Marquis Ossoli, and the following year they were married. On the outbreak of the Italian struggle for independence, the Marshalls took an active part in it, and served heroically in the hospitals during the French siege of Rome. On the capture of that city in July 1849, she fled with her husband in an attempt to reach America. Shortly after they sailed from Leghorn the captain of the vessel was stricken with malice and died. As the vessel neared New York a terrible storm arose and the vessel went ashore on Long Island. The sea swept over her deck until not a spar was left and eight persons, among them the Marquis and Marchioness Ossoli and their infant son, perished after hours of agonized waiting for help.

SECOND TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Tipton, Ind., May 23.—The case of Henry Yarling, indicted for first degree murder was called for its second trial in the circuit court today. A year ago Yarling killed Charles Smith as a result of a quarrel. The slayer made a plea of self defense in the first trial, which ended in a deadlock of the jury. Since that time Yarling has been at Tipton on bail.

POLICE CHIEF LOCKS UP WIFE

Caught Drinking With Other Women Officer Overcomes Spouse and She Spends Night in Jail.

Taylorville, Ill., May 20.—Theodore Bush, formerly a resident of this city, is now chief of police at Benton, Ark., and according to a message from that city he looked up his own wife in the police station at Benton Thursday night on a charge of disturbing the peace. Mrs. Bush was Miss Ethel Wilson, daughter of Cashier Wilson, a miner of Taylorville, before her marriage. According to the dispatchers, Bush was in a saloon drinking beer with two women when his wife entered and without a word slapped him in the face. Bush notified her that she was under arrest and she scratched his face. Then he took her to the lock-up and she resisted every step of the way. He kept her there over night and Friday she was released on bond. In a letter to her folks here she admits the truth of the newspaper articles and says she will join them as soon as she can get possession of her furniture. Bush vows he will prosecute his wife if she attempts to remove the furniture.irate citizens of Benton have asked the mayor to discharge Bush, but he refuses.

G. A. R. OF ILLINOIS.

Freeport, Ill., May 23.—Although the real business of the annual encampment of the G. A. R. of Illinois does not begin until to-morrow, the trains and interurban cars brought in the vanguard of veterans and other visitors today, and the large number of early arrivals points to a large attendance. The business session is decorated with flags and other patriotic emblems and the parade will move through garlands of red, white and blue hung from buildings, poles and wires. The contests for officers of the G. A. R. and the Woman's Relief Corps and the other bodies whose annual meetings will be held are already attracting much attention among the delegates.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

MAN WAS INTERNALLY INJURED AND SUFFERED GREATLY.

Told a Severe and Dangerous Operation Was the Only Chance of Relief.

Cured by the Bio-Kemic Doctors
Without the Use of the Knife in Two Weeks' Time.

Mr. Wilbur Taylor, of Jacksonville, (a man well known by reason of his sufferings) is a changed man. No longer does dreadful fear darken his countenance. He was told by physicians his health was forever gone unless a dangerous and severe operation was performed on him and then the chances were against him. No wonder he was saddened. His days were full of physical pain to which was superadded the mental anguish of that awful operation, so severe, so critical and above all so uncertain in its results.

But now everything is changed for him because he visited the Bio-Kemic Doctors at their Jacksonville office on the second floor of the Knollenberg building, 74 public square. These kind and eminent physicians, after a careful examination, assured him that they could help him without the use of the knife or any surgical measures whatsoever. And now he is restored—thanks to the wonderful skill of the Bio-Kemic doctors. The indiscriminate use of the knife is the greatest reproach of modern surgery. The surgeon is prone to see no way out of a chronic difficulty but to cut. While the operation is often said to be "successful" (the patient (or victim) often dies.

And the poor women! How they are tortured and what they have to suffer from surgery. The writer well remembered 25 years ago how widespread was the craze for removing the ovaries of every complaining woman. This serious operation was done for the most trifling as well as the gravest cases and many thousands of women unsexed "to gratify a surgical fallacy. Today other operations are in vogue and "nothing but an operation" is the verdict given to women who suffer from diseases peculiar to their sex.

The present surgical fad is the removal of the appendix. This is done often for any digestive disturbance or say internal trouble, be it old fashioned "stomach ache" or chronic constipation.

Surgery has its mission, far be it from us to deny this. But the abuse of the use of the knife is the result of the neglect of the proper use of medical measures in hundreds and thousands of cases.

The Bio-Kemic doctors cure all cases they accept for treatment without the use of the knife, but when a case is found where none but surgical measures will suffice the patient is at once informed of the fact. However, the number of these cases is small and makes a very small percentage of the cases the Bio-Kemic Doctors are called upon to examine.

The Bio-Kemic Doctors treat and cure all curable cases by their combined and advanced methods—all curable chronic diseases of men and nerves, blood, skin, heart, liver, stomach, kidney, rheumatism, paralysis, neuralgia, catarrh, epilepsy, loss of nerve force, constipation, indigestion, weak back, bloating, dropsy, blood poisoning, eczema and diseases of women and men.

The Bio-Kemic doctors are in their offices from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., every day except Sunday. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturdays they keep office hours from 7 to 8 p. m. Sundays the offices are closed at noon.

For a short time the Bio-Kemic Doctors will make no charge for examinations, no matter how difficult or searching. Their advice as to the nature of the disease and the necessary treatment is also free. A nominal charge is made for medicines.

Here is the testimony of one who escaped the horrors of surgery by consulting the Bio-Kemic Doctors:

To Whom It May Concern:

Five years ago I was a healthy and robust man, but was accidentally hurt while working at my trade. From that time on I have been troubled with stomach and kidneys and continually growing worse. In the meantime I consulted and treated with many doctors, getting no relief and was advised that an operation was the only road to recovery. My condition continued to grow worse until about seven weeks ago I was compelled to give up my work being fearful of an operation and as a last resort I consulted the Bio-Kemic Doctors at their Jacksonville office, second floor of the Knollenberg building, 74 public square, and was agreeably surprised that they did not advocate the use of the knife.

I am glad to say that after about two weeks' treatment I felt able to do my work again. I am more than pleased to recommend them to the afflicted.

(Signed) Wilbur Taylor,

THE BIG CORN PRIZE FUND

INCENTIVE GIVEN FARMERS TO RAISE LARGE CROPS.

Each County Asked to Raise Money as Prizes for Farmers Who Grow 100 or More Bushels of Corn to the Acre.

An effort is being made to raise a fund exceeding $50,000 to be awarded as prizes in the several counties of Illinois to farmers who grow 100 or more bushels of corn per acre.

Hon. John M. Crebs, the president of the Illinois state board of agriculture has sent the following letter to a large number of enterprising citizens inviting all who are interested in promoting the farming industry of the state, to make pledges to their respective county prize funds.

The citizens of Will county have already raised a fund of $500 to be awarded to the grower of the largest yield of corn in said county—the yield to be not less than 100 bushels per acre.

President Crebs writes as follows: "All the people of this state, bankers, merchants, farmers, laborers, etc., are so dependent upon the prosperity attending a large crop of corn, that no one can afford to withhold any reasonable inducement that will encourage the better selection of seed the most thorough preparation of the seed bed, the best cultivation of the growing crop on land properly fertilized."

The citizens of the leading corn counties of Illinois should not be content with a less prize fund of corn on the plan suggested by President Crebs than $1,000 and a $500 prize fund should be the minimum in the other counties.

The offer of not less than $50,000 in corn prizes on the plan proposed by President Crebs, will add millions of dollars annually to the value of the corn crop in Illinois.

President Crebs' Letter.

President Crebs writes: "Dear Sir: Corn is by far the most important crop grown in Illinois. The late 1909 corn crop of this state had a farm value of $192,280,900."

"The average yield per acre of corn produced in this state is not one half of what it should be. The value of our yearly corn crop can be more than doubled by the general adoption of the best method of fertilizing, selection of seed and cultivation."

"All the people of this state, bankers, merchants, farmers, laborers, etc., are so dependant upon the prosperity attending a large crop of corn that no one can afford to withhold any reasonable inducement that will encourage the better selection of seed, the most thorough preparation of seed bed, the best cultivation of the growing crop on hand properly fertilized."

"You are invited to cooperate in a campaign of education that will direct the attention of the farmers of this state to the possibility of increasing the average yield of corn from thirty five bushels to the acre to seventy or more bushels per acre."

"It is proposed to raise by private subscription a prize fund to be offered in each county in Illinois to the farmer producing the largest average yield of corn on five or more acres."

"The only condition is that at least 100 bushels of corn be produced and that satisfactory evidence of the yield and manner of cultivation be certified to in each county to the county superintendent of schools, the president of the County Farmers' Institute or the county clerk."

"You will not be called upon for your offer that in case no application for said prize is made in 1910 by a resident of your county, that the prize may be offered later to the farmer first reporting the largest yield of not less than 100 bushels of corn to the acre."

"It would greatly stimulate the competition for said prizes for 100 or more bushel yields to have you give a portion of your prize money as a part of the grand sweepstakes prizes to be given to the farmer in any county in Illinois that produced in 1910 the largest yield in the state than 100 or more bushels of corn per acre."

"You can greatly aid in this very important campaign of education by making a liberal pledge of $5 or more to your county as well as the state prize for the above purpose."

"Will you not make an early report of your willingness to co-operate in this plan to stimulate every farmer in Illinois to obtain much better results in corn culture and send the amount of your pledge to Col. Charles F. Mills, Springfield, Ill., secretary of the late state corn show of the Illinois state board of agriculture."

"Your early and favorable consideration of this matter will serve a valuable purpose in connection with the corn planting this season."

"Very truly yours,"

Home Course In Poultry Keeping

IX.—Seasonal Review of the Work.

By MILO M. HASTINGS,
Formerly Poultryman at Kansas Experiment Station, Commercial Poultry Expert of the United States Department of Agriculture, Author of "The Lollar Hen."

(Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.)

IN this last lesson I shall apply the suggestion given in the previous eight lessons by naming briefly the things that will require attention month by month.

January.

All stock saved for sale as breeders should have been got rid of around the holiday season or shortly thereafter, and the poultryman begins the year with a well culled flock of layers. In January the laying hens will require more attention than at any other season of the year. The weather is severe, and as egg prices are high every egg added to the basket represents a good profit. See that the house is tight, except openings in the front left for ventilation. See that these windows are so protected that snow does not blow in. Whether you will keep the hens shut in or allow them to run out will depend upon your general plan of operation. If feeding in litter is used, it will be best to keep the hens indoors as much as possible, and careful watch will be necessary to see that the birds are kept busy and always too hungry to mope around, yet the January hen must never go to bed with an empty crop. When the temperature of the house is below freezing the hens should be given water with the chill taken off twice or, better still, three times a day. Sometimes eggs will have to be gathered.

The poultryman's work is considerably relieved during July. Indeed, this is the best season of the year for him to leave the chicken farm to the hired man and visit his kinfolk. Cleanliness to keep down disease and lice and care in gathering the eggs frequently and marketing them promptly are the chief points worthy of mention.

February.

The February work of the poultry yard is very like that of the January. The main idea at this season of the year is to keep the hens laying. When the warm days come, the droppings that have accumulated in the poultry house will become damp and malodorous and should be removed. If there is a heavy fall of snow shovel a little strip in front of the house, and if hens range around stables or in feed lots it will pay to shovel a path for them. During very sloppy days it may be desirable to shut the hens in, as it is of little benefit for them to trail around in the slush and it will result in the soiling of the eggs.

With a well kept flock of poultry the March egg yield is the heaviest of the year. Eggs are declining in price rapidly at this season and should be marketed frequently. By this month any supply of vegetables kept from the previous fall will have been exhausted, and with the feeling of spring in the air the poultryman must not forget that warm days will not bring the hens spring foods. Dry clover and alfalfa are fair, but sprouted oats are better, and it will be worth the trouble necessary to prepare them. As soon as the ground may be worked all yards or, if on a farm, a patch of ground near the poultry house should be sown in oats. The chickens may pull one-half the crop up by the roots as it comes through the ground, but it is the chickens we are interested in and not the oat crop.

March.

With a well kept flock of poultry the March egg yield is the heaviest of the year. Eggs are declining in price rapidly at this season and should be marketed frequently. By this month any supply of vegetables kept from the previous fall will have been exhausted, and with the feeling of spring in the air the poultryman must not forget that warm days will not bring the hens spring foods. As soon as the ground may be worked all yards or, if on a farm, a patch of ground near the poultry house should be sown in oats. If the incubator is to be used for hatching it should be started about the 1st of March, while the hens may now be set as rapidly as they become broody. With the heavy breeds every effort should be made to have the bulk of the chickens hatch during the month of April. During the last two weeks in March incubators are to be set for Leghorns.

April.

With green food sown the previous month the egg production problem in April will simplify itself considerably. The hens can now range abundantly, and the care necessary in the winter time to keep them busy and happy is no longer required. April is the poultryman's busy month. His labors with the layers consist chiefly in gathering the eggs, but the work is most arduous with sitting hens and incubators, which are now running full blast, and even more of this time must go to

May.

May, like April, is a month in which the hens take care of themselves. The hatching of the larger breeds should be finished the early part of this month. Hens of all breeds will insist upon wishing to brood, but can be broken up by penning them in an outdoor coop for a few days. Little chicks will require a great deal of care, and when thundershowers come up some one must hasten out, frequently in the rain, and see that the foolish hens and frightened brooder chicks get under shelter and do not perch up in some fence corner. If perchance some have been forgotten one should make a thorough search as soon as the shower is over and bring all soaked chicks into the house to dry. Those found down flat on their backs and apparently dead, if rescued soon enough and wrapped in woolen rags and placed around the stove, will revive in a most astonishing fashion.

June.

The hatching of Leghorns should be brought to a close during the early part of this month and all male birds taken from the yards. The growing chicks will now be old enough to need less care, and the chief source of the poultryman's loss will be due to his carelessness in leaving coops unprotected from "varmints."

Lies and mites will now begin to invade the poultryman's camp more abundantly, and with the approach of the warm weather more cleanliness in feeding vessels and about the house will be necessary.

July.

The poultryman's work is considerably relieved during July. Indeed, this is the best season of the year for him to leave the chicken farm to the hired man and visit his kinfolk. Cleanliness to keep down disease and lice and care in gathering the eggs frequently and marketing them promptly are the chief points worthy of mention.

August.

In August we have the same problems as the previous month. Be sure the hens have abundant water and green food. The egg yield should show a considerable increase over July. The male birds of the heavier breeds should now be got into shape for market. The poultry breeder should take careful observation of his growing stock and make selection of the most vigorous youngsters to be reared, from which to pick the breeding stock. More green crops should now be sown for the fall pasturage. All two-year-old hens and, if you have abundant pullets, a portion of the yearling hens may now be sent to market.

September.

Eggs are now advancing in price, but it is neither right nor, in the long run, profitable to hold them. Sell all eggs promptly and try to get recognition for your honesty and quality of your product. Young male birds, especially Leghorns, should be separated from the pullets. The coops or colony houses in which the young pullets have grown should be gradually moved toward the house which is to be the winter quarters and the pullets got into the habit of roosting in the laying house. Nice secluded nests should be arranged, as a few precocious pullets will begin laying in this month. Sow wheat and rye for winter green foods.

October.

Pullets will now begin laying in considerable numbers. If you have fancy trade keep their eggs, which are small, separated from the larger stock. Any remaining old hens that are not to be kept through the winter should be disposed of. Runt pullets and all young male birds not needed for breeding stock should also be sent to market.

November.

This month should find the laying flock nicely installed in their winter quarters. November eggs are high in price and scarcer than at any other time during the year. The poultry fancier will now select his birds and get them ready for the shows. As the nights grow colder use judgment in closing up the poultry house. If it is closed tightly the hens which have been roosting in the open air will catch cold, and roup will be the result. Keep a careful lookout for this dread disease and take immediate steps to correct things if the symptoms of roup appear.

December.

December is the height of the poultry show season. The fancier will be a very busy man. His birds must be cooped, trained and prepared for the shows. The poultryman himself may be away at shows, and some one else will have to look after the flock at home. By all means layers must not be neglected. Not only are December eggs highly profitable, but layers that do not start in this month will be very liable to keep in the background until the warm spells of March.

the care of wee chicks. Of all the work of the poultry farm that of caring for the newly hatched chicks is the most difficult to systematize or to intrust to the hands of hired labor.

The coops or outdoor brooders should be well scattered about, as it is not good for large flocks of young chicks to run together. Moreover, young chicks must be protected in their feeding quarters from the presence of old fowls, which in their greed to get at the food meant for the little fellows will run over and trample them. On the farm this is most easily arranged by having the food for chicks in a slat coop, which keeps out the grown fowls.

May.

May, like April, is a month in which the hens take care of themselves. The hatching of the larger breeds should be finished the early part of this month. Hens of all breeds will insist upon wishing to brood, but can be broken up by penning them in an outdoor coop for a few days. Lies and mites will now begin to invade the poultryman's camp more abundantly, and with the approach of the warm weather more cleanliness in feeding vessels and about the house will be necessary.

During June crops should be sown to supply green food in the midsummer, when the grass and spring sown crops dry up.

July.

The poultryman's work is considerably relieved during July. Indeed, this is the best season of the year for him to leave the chicken farm to the hired man and visit his kinfolk. Cleanliness to keep down disease and lice and care in gathering the eggs frequently and marketing them promptly are the chief points worthy of mention.

Early broilers will be ready for market during this month.

Grain Letter.
Chicago, May 23.—Wheat—Sensationally weak cables, bearish weekly statistics and favorable growing weather, encouraging rains, more or less May wheat was on sale, coming mostly from elevator operators. There was no special feature to the buying, but it is presumed that the Patten interest gave the market support through brokers. The general situation is moderately bearish and if bears can overcome pit conditions longs may be forced to liquidate. Considerable unfavorable crop news comes from central Illinois, but traders are in no mood to listen to damage reports.

Corn—Showed considerable firmness. The Patten house was openly a large buyer and are supposed to have bought through other brokers. Commission houses were on both sides of the market, but outside buying appeared to be on a fairly large scale. Floor operators are bearish and continue to predict large movement. Many reports coming in that replanting is necessary. Heavy rains will interrupt the movement and receipts are expected to continue light. Corn is being affected to considerable extent by action of wheat.

Oats—Felt the general weakness and eased off under a large scattered liquidation. There was a good demand from shorts. Crop reports are more favorable and receipts fairly liberal. The long interest in May, which temporarily congested the market, appears to have liquidated and transferred the deferred futures. We feel friendly to July oats on soft spots. The crop is delayed and harvest will be late.

Provisions—Steady with a moderate trade. Packers bought in a small way. Product is still well below the cost of manufacture and no hedging operations are in progress. Hogs closed firm, shade higher. Hog weights for last week averaged 241 vs. last year's 215 weight. Packers are against any considerable advance.

Sheep—Receipts, 20,000. Market demoralized. Sheep, $4.75 @ 5.00; yearlings, $6.25 @ 7.00; lambs, $7.00 @ 8.00; spring lambs, $8.75 @ 9.25.

For the words of Prof. Penabaz of Harvard are true, "The end of education is not facts, rules, tables, but insight, initiative, grasp, growth, character, power!" As President Butler of Columbia has said, "It becomes impossible for us ever again to identify education with the mere acquisition of learning. It must mean a radical attitudinal to the spiritual dimensions of the race."

Walter Steinhagen, of Beard's, made a trip to this city Sunday on his auto and gave a ride to his friends, James Kann, Thomas Brennan and Charles Osmer. After spending the day here the party departed for home in the evening going via routing.

There were only seventy six present of which number nine were visitors. This attendance again failed to win the banner.

CIGAR FACTORY EMPLOYEES OUT

Workers Took Their Tools Monday in Accordance With the Wishes of the Firm.

The cigar makers who have been employed by the L. S. Kent-McCarthy company went to the factory Monday and removed their tools from their benches in accordance with the expressed wish of the firm that they return to work at the old scale by May 23 or else remove their tools. Mr. Kent of the Kent-McCarthy firm, was asked yesterday if he was willing to talk for publication about the differences between the firm and the cigar makers and replied that at present he did not care to discuss the matter in print.

The committee representing the cigar makers' union yesterday issued the following statement as to their side of the controversy:

"To the Public—In view of the fact that an article appeared in the Courier last week, which was headed 'Cigar Makers Ask to Return to Work,' we wish to correct this. The cigar makers formerly employed by the Kent-McCarthy Co. did not ask to return to work, but were given the alternative to return to work by the firm of Kent-McCarthy Co. under the old scale of wages or remove their tools by May 23. Owing to the fact that the new scale of prices has been accepted by all the other manufacturers in this jurisdiction and had been accepted by Kent-McCarthy Co., and their employees had been paid for two days work according to the new scale regardless of the statements made by the firm to the contrary, the employees decided to remove their tools in compliance with the request of the firm, which was done to day, May 23.

"Cigar Makers' union No. 114 entered into an agreement with the Kent-McCarthy Co. on April 9, 1910, when the new scale of prices was accepted by this firm, to resume work on April 11 and work up all eased stock, which required two days work, then lay off for two weeks, until April 23, so as to afford time to readjust shop affairs, when work would be resumed under the new scale of prices. This agreement was violated by the Kent-McCarthy Co., who refused the men to work, and evaded attempts on the part of the men to learn the reason why, until May 2, when the men were told that the firm could not accept the new scale, and on May 16 the men were told they could accept one of two alternatives, either to come to work under the old scale or to remove their tools, with the result as stated. The strike is now on."

It is a matter for sincere regret that differences have arisen between the Kent-McCarthy firm and their employees. The industry is one of the most important in Jacksonville, as the factory gives employment to one hundred men, besides 15 packers and 30 strippers. When the shop is working thousands of dollars are distributed each month and the merchants and the community at large are directly benefited. Jacksonville is interested in having the trouble settled and citizens as a whole will hope that it will not be of long duration.

A Sale Wherein a Dollar Bill will have greater purchasing power than ever before

Dollar

Friday
May 27

In these days of strenuous opposition to the increased cost of living, a sale of this character comes as a pleasing relief, for it proves that all institutions are not of the grasping, grinding kind referred to almost daily in the public prints. We are going to do our share toward lessening the burden. Going to make the American dollar look twice as big for one day at least, and enable you to make it—in some instances—go nearly as far as two. To this we've planned.

A Big Dollar Day—Friday, May 27

When we will offer merchandise of almost every worthy sort at very much less than usual. A sale in which every department in the store is concerned, and in which each particular section will try to out-do the other in the extraordinariness of its dollar bargains.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.
What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Spirit Rock.

A memorial to an explorer is that in honor of Jean Nicolet at Menasha, Wis. It is a huge boulder of Winnebago Manitou stone, known as "spirit rock," and is mounted on a plain pyramid of sandstone twelve feet high. An inscription relates that Nicolet was the first white man in Wisconsin and that he met the Winnebago tribe and held the earliest white council with 5,000 of its braves. The monument was erected by the city of Menasha and women's clubs of that place.

IN SOCIETY

One of the most pleasing social events of commencement week at the high school was the reception given last night to the seniors by the juniors at the home of Miss Agnes Rogerson on Lockwood Place, Miss Rogerson being a member of the junior class.

Nothing was left undone to entertain the members of both classes and the first pleasure afforded was a trolley ride over the city which was crowded into with great hilarity. At the Rogerson home the guests found that the decorations were very pretty. In the parlor were Japanese lanterns, smilax and ferns in the library, ferns, and in the dining room, cut flowers. Also on the porch and in the front room were found numerous Japanese lanterns artistically arranged.

It was a jolly crowd of young folks who made themselves feel at home through their charming classmate who seems to have everything perfectly arranged to make the hours enjoyable. Mallory Brothers were secured to furnish music for the occasion and they were located on the side porch where during the entire time they rendered the most delightful music that proved all that one could ask or desire and the students showed their appreciation by hearty cheering.

Delightful refreshments were served consisting of chicken salad, hot rolls, olives, pickles, patties with the figures 1910, representing the class colors of the seniors—purple and white—and the same idea was also carried out in the ice cream and cake. During the evening games were played and it was a late hour when the guests departed, carrying with them pleasant recollections of the occasion.

Attend the high school play Friday night, "The Rivals."

WRECK ON WABASH.

Third No. 67, a Wabash through freight, and second No. 67, met in a rear-end collision Sunday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock on Riverton Hill. The caboose of the second section was smashed to kindling wood and the engine of the third section was turned over on its side in the ditch. The trains were running less than fifteen miles an hour and the trainmen were able to jump and escaped injury.

Engine No. 2165, one of the largest in use on the Wabash, was derailed. The Springfield wrecker was not able to cope with the situation and as the Decatur wrecker was out of the city at the time, it was several hours before the tracks were cleared and traffic resumed. The Decatur wrecker arrived about 6 o'clock and at 10 o'clock the tracks were cleared. Passenger train No. 15 was detained by way of Decatur over the C. & D. tracks to Springfield.

You will enjoy "The Rivals," the high school play, Friday night.

ECLIPSE OF MOON.

Halley's comet for a time Monday night lost its charm to a number of astronomers who busied themselves by observing the total eclipse of the moon. The moon entered the earth's shadow about 8:30, central time, and the eclipse was total at 12:08 and lasted until 12:51. It left the shadow at 2:14 o'clock this morning. The phenomenon was visible in all parts of America, excepting Alaska. The beginning was also visible in Africa and southwestern Europe.

Beautiful books, Ledford's.

COMET CAN BE SEEN.

Clouds obscured the view of the comet Monday night. With a clear sky to night it should be visible in the western sky until about two hours after sunset. Within a fortnight it will fade from the naked eye view, according to Prof. David Todd, M. A. Ph. D.

INDICATIONS.
